Reading

Alan's Talented Family

- 1 Read about Alan's family and answer questions 1–5.

My name is Alan. My family is very talented. My brother likes sports. He can play cricket and tennis. My sister likes music. She can sing and she can play the piano. My mother is an artist. She can paint pictures. My father can fly an aeroplane. My cat, Blackie, can climb trees. How about me? I can't sing or play a musical instrument. I'm not good at sports. What can I do? I can sleep!

1. What can Alan's brother do?
2. What can his sister do?
3. What can his mother do?
4. Can his father fly an aeroplane?
5. What can Alan do?

- 2 Now write about people you know (family, friends, classmates, teachers etc.).

- 3 We also use 'can' to talk about:

Things that we are able or not able to do.

I can't see the board. I left my glasses at home.

Oh, no! I can't find my homework.

He speaks very quietly. I can't hear him.

I can't pick up the suitcase. It's really heavy.

Things we want to do, or we want people to do.

Can I open the window?

Can you close your books, please?

We can watch television at the weekend.
